The Middlebury Register

J. H. BARRETT & J. COBB.

OFFICE IN STEWART'S BUILDING, ON MAIN-ST TERMS.

No paper discontinued until arrearages And when kind words are spoken,

V. B. Palmer is our agent in Boston My heart is well nigh broken, and New York. To think that it can only de-

Dr S. M. Perrengill, 10 State Street Boston, is our authorized Agent.

Law of Newspapers.

1. Subscribers who do not give express no tice to the contrary, are considered as wishing to continue their subscription.

2. If subscribers order the discontinuance of their papers, the publisher may continue to send them till all that is due be paid. 3. If subscribers neglect or refuse to take their papers from the office to which they are directed, they are held responsible till they have settled their bills and ordered their papers discontinued.

4. If subscribers move to other places, without informing the publisher, and the paper is sent to the former direction, they are held responsitie.

5. The courts have decided that refusing to take a paper from the office, or removing and leaving it uncalled for, is prima facia evidence

6. A Postmaster neglecting to inform a pub-lisher when his paper is not taken from the of-fice, makes himself liable for his subscription

A Positive Gain of Nearly 50 Per Cent. DALLEY'S GENUINE PAIN EXTRACTOR.

In a New Envelope and Boxes of Much Larger Size!

Larger Size!

That incomparable and truly indispensable family salve. Dalley's Extract, being extensively counterfeired in the old wrapper. I cantion the public aginst this dangerous fluid. Avoid the pulsoons consuperfeit, and buy Dalley's Extract only, in the New Wrapper and Large Boxes. You thereby avoid the danger attending the new of the counterfeit—escape imposition—are certain of get ting the genuine article—and gain nearly 50 at '.' quantity of the olument. M. k.—the symbols on the New Wrapper—the Triangle, Surpent, Sun, Dove, Lion and Engle.

(37-Read the new circulars for 1851. (3-Read the new eirculars for 1851.

DALLEY'S

ANIMAL GALVANIC CURE-ALL.

surance Company.

Organized at Hartford, Connecticut, Sep-INSURED CAPITAL $100,000.

L. G. BINGHAM. Williston,

CENTEST OFFICE OF THIS AGENCY, East Side of the Court House Square, Burlington, Vt.

Wallingford: Fayette Potter, Pawiet.

Menocal Examination.—Cytus Potter, Rutlind: E. H. Drury, Pattsford: A. Kendrick, Poultary: A. S. Houghton, Paulet: S. H. Bow., Clarendon: J. D. Woodward, Cartetion: Joriah W. Hale, Brandon; John Fox, Wallingsich W. Hale, Brandon; John Fox, Walling.

ON THE MUTUAL PLAN.

nd reserved Fund, received from mutual in-urers, the capital stock, one hundred thousand dollars, and all the reserved fund of the Joint from durance vile. where he has

ON THE JOINT STOCK PLAN,

The rates are reduced one third the amount charged on the mutual plan,—the Company taking only what it is worth, to insure a life a givand jet black hair, which is loog, and more can amount, for a given time, instead of taking more than an equitable sum and afterwards more than an equitable sum and afterwards paying back a part of one's seen moneyand calling it so much profit. The great advantage of this mode of insurance over the mutual plan may be thus illustrated. Suppose a father, at the age of this transpose of the thing scriptural in the tout cusemble of the strange physiognomy of this uncouth and them many compliments. Lord Anglesea

The rates are as lavorable to the assured as safety to the company will permit. Insurance is all who have others depending on them for support.

The rates are as lavorable to the assured as from one string. His name is Paganini; he negotiation was rather a difficult one, as is vary improvident and very poor. The Paganini was, of all others, the man who have others depending on them for support.

D—s, and the Impressario of the theatre got did nothing in the way of business without CALIFORNIA LIFE RISKS, pany.

This is owing to the fact that the rates on the Joint Stock plan of this Company are one third less than in Mutual Companies generally Many young men are now getting an insursing to greatly to be desired that they should be made the occasion of a systematic encourse in the most surprising to greatly to be desired that they should be made the occasion of a systematic encourse in the most surprising to greatly to be desired that they should be made the occasion of a systematic encourse in the most surprising to greatly to be desired that they should be made the occasion of a systematic encourse in the most surprising to greatly to be desired that they should be made the occasion of a systematic encourse. Many young men are now getting an insur-ance on their lives, and raising their funds to go to California with, by horrowing, against their policies as security, from their friends. The Harrown Life and Harris Issue.

and on exmination that it can be in no better again in that his.

A nobleman, with a few plied, "as a matter of course—the Lord be illustrated by the broad canvass ayan in that his.

43:tf *freecoed walls."—London Builder.

Darkness where er I go! No earth, nor sky, nor blessed light for

But a deep, yearning woe For the bright things I never more may

Like holy breathings from a land onseen

To think that it can only darkly dream What form may wear the sweet-toned in strument, Where love hath all its gentlest music blent. Yet memory will is mine, ngain! My girlhood's happy time-The forms and faces so familiar then;

And, shining like a star through my dark Is one who was as dear to me as sight.

Wearing the looks I leved so to behold;

The same calm, thoughtful brow, And loving smile, that pe'er for me wi 'Tis 'mid my desert a freeh, lovely spot,

And one which even blindness withers no

But oh! to feel haw vain The hopes which came around us like eweet flowers !

t almost sears my brain, To think through life such will no more

Yet it is but the wreck of earth's frail bark Father of Light, let not my soul be dark Sharpe's Magazine.

THE SUMBER VICTORY—AN EPIGRAM. Let land bosannas the welkin fill, For a victory won against popular odds-

A victory over the popular will! But as to the "glory," keep that out of sigh

Cures strains and sprains more rapidly and complex than ever known before; draw out homore than ever known before; draw out homore, grease, wens, mange, poisen, &c. effectually; arreat martification instantly bose spayin, politevil, quetter, sprains, ring bone, &c., are residily cared by this unequalled cure-all CAUTION.—But only of my authorised Agents, H. DALLEY, 415 Broadway, N. Y.

J. B. Tousey and M. S. Burn only travelling agents for the Eastern States.

Answers.—Middlebury, W. P. Russel and Sidney Moody.—New Haven, A. P. Roscor.—Bristof, J. D. Needlam.—Vergences, F. Humington, and W. G. Sprague.

2:5m

But as to the "glory," keep that out of sight you're not of discretion bereft;
For, since the triumph is over the right,
The "glory" is "over the left."

Boston Post.

Courted the Post Polico of a Manager, in the Dublin Unversity Magazine.

Anecdotes of Paganini.

Poganini was in all respects a very sing lar being, and an interesting subject to study. From the Port Polic of a Manager, in the Dublin Us Paganini was in all respects a very singu lar being and an interesting subject to study Hartford Life and Health In- His talents were by no means confined to his wonderful powers as a musician. Or and conversible, of bland and gentle manners, and in society perfectly well-bred. All this contrasted strangely with the dark, mysterious stories which were bruited about, To whom applications may be sent from any part of the State: are treacherous as quicksands, when take N. WARD, M. D., Medical Examiner. of human character. Lord Byron remarks Applications may be made at any time at that his pocket was once picked by the civi The once in the following at this offire, or by either of the following gentlemen, that by far the mildest individual of his ac Agents and Medical Examiners to the Comquaintance was the remorseless Ali Pacha o Yanina. The expressive lineaments of Pag-Agents.—Cyrus Birge, County Agent, Mid.

alichary; Ira Bingham, Vergenoes; Calvin T Bingham, New Haven; Calvin G. Tilden, Corn lead; Wm. B. Martin. Orwell. Medical Examiners—Zach Bass, MiddleMedical Examiners—Ach Bass, MiddleMedical Examiners—Ach Bass, MiddleMedical Examiners—Ach Bass, MiddleMedical Examiners—Ach Bass, MiddleMerce exhausted by indulgence and premature decay, leaving deep furrows to mark their intensity. Like the generality of his Sione, Veycanar; O. G. Eells, Cornwell; F.P.

Wheeler, Brithle.

RUTLAND COUNTY.

Toused again from temporary summer, of the everimente grand uoing, mr da non poterst
comprendere." "He is truly a great man.
but quite incomprehensible."

It was edifying to observe the awful imstanced in it, and is to everimente grand uoing, mr da non poterst
comprendere." "He is truly a great man.
but quite incomprehensible."

It was edifying to observe the awful imstance that a Mr.

Wheeler, Brithle.

RUTLAND COUNTY.

The struly a great man.
but quite incomprehensible."

It was edifying to observe the awful imstrument nightly intrusted to his charge to ter a well-developed Italian, whiskered to AGENTS.—R. R. Thrall, County Agent, Rutter a well-developed Italian, whiskered to trade Exra June, Brandon: Henry Simonds, the eye-brows, and "bearded like the pard," the eye-brows, and "bearded like the pard," who tells you. to your utter astonishment, radon: A. Bliss, Poultney: D. E. Nicholson Wallingford: Fayette Potter, Pauelet.

Magnetia Expression County Research.

iscences, entitled "My Adventures," dated ON THE MUTUAL PLAN,

This company will insure at the usual rates, and in three particulars claim the superiority over all method Companies.

Ist. Deducting only ten per cent commission from the Vatual Insurance Fund, instead of the entire expenses of the Company, annually, 2nd. Given serip certificates of profits each year, payable in cash when two hundredthousand dollars has accumulated as a reserved multal fund, such scrip bearing interest from date and rangeferable.

Genos, February 22d, 1815, supplies the carliest record which has been given to the public respecting Paganini, and affords authentic evidence that some of the mysterious tales which heralded his coming were not without foundation. He could scarcely have been at this time thirty years of age. "Talk and on the instant perpetuated the concepting of music, I have become acquainted with the most outre, most extravagant, and strape. Genos, February 22d, 1815, supplies the the most outre, most extravagant, and strang-3rd. In addition to the usual Mutual Fund est character I ever balleld, or heard, in the Stock insurance is pledged for the payment of long time incarcerated on suspicion of murder. His long figure, long neck, long face and long forehead; his hollow and deadly pale check, large black eye, hooked nose, and jet black hair, which is loog, and more every night to the concerts at the theatre, and tion Colonel Maxwell mentions, or that it ANDE COMPANY is enusually prosperous.

"Its success is unprecedented by that of any Life Insurance Company that ever existed in Colonel Maxwell mentions, or that it affair, and went to work accordingly. The the representatives of the most powerful reside de-camp in waiting called with me on public that ever existed, should be respleased. Life Insurance Company that ever existed in this country. Its Managers are among our reasonably inferred from the fact that he es: Paganini, was introduced in due form, and dent with all the graces which painting and "sold and delivered." most respected and responsible citizens.—
most respected and responsible citizens.—
They are men who exercise the utmost care in the discharge of their duties, and are determined to doa safe and successful business.—Hart.

Caped the gallies or the executioner. In thanded him a card of invitation to dinner, which, of course, he received, and accepted uresque history of the first settlements of the different States, the heroic deeds of our
with ceremonious politeness. Soon after
the different States, the heroic deeds of our
with ceremonious politeness. Soon after
the different States, the heroic deeds of our
we thought then, and think now, that and another for the poor. As he was without the officer had departed, he said suddenly, armies, the labors and exploits of border our pedler acted like a man of talent,

(which, by the way, he borrowed from me and never repaid,) and there the matter enda fool as he looked, "that is impossible. I once began that system, my kingdom would advise?" soon be depopulated. One half my subject would be continually employed in hanging the remainder."

Among other poculiarities, Paganini was n incarnation of avarice and parsimony. And what lone treasures it gives back with a most contradictory passion for gampence, and stake a rouleau on a single turn ed in a vice; yet he had intervals of libersaries of life, and lived on a potato skin, but metimes gave a check of £100 to a public charity, and contributed largely to private subscriptions. I never heard that Paganini setually did this, but once or twice he played I wrote to him on the subject, and soon reor nothing, and sent a donation to the Men, prived a very consteous communication, to licity, when he was in Dublia. When he made his engagement with me, we mutually agreed to write no orders, exight, and both being aware that the * soos of freedom," while they add nothing to the exchequer, saldom assist the effect of the performance. They are not given to applaud ebemently ; or, as Richelieu observes, " in ed, and his spirit is exalted accordingly. Paganini's valet surprised me one morning, carry to and from the theatre. He considcred it an unimated something, whether demon or angel be was unable to determine. but this he firmly believed, that it could set him down from his appearance as, at speak in actual dialogue when his master pleased, or became a dumb familiar by the same controlling volition. This especial violin was Paganini's inseparable companion. It lay on his table before him as he ever. This marvellous Cremona, valued a our hundred goineas, Paganini, on his deathbed, gave to De Kontski, his nephew and only pupil, himself an eminent performer and in his possession it now remains.

When Paganini was in Dublin at the m sical testival of 1830, the Marquis of Angle sen, then Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, cam D-s, and the Impressario of the theatre got did nothing in the way of business without up a concert for him the other night, which an explicit understanding, and a clearly de-which confined its practice entirely to the vate." " Caro amico," rejoined he, with lower orders. I knew a Skill an prince, who petrifying composure, " Paganini con violmost wantonly blew a vassal's brains out, inn e Paganini senza violino-reco due ani- when we saw, for the first time, a regu merely because he put him in a passion. mali distini." "Paganini with his fiddle lar built Yankee pedler equipage. We The case was not even enquired into. He and Paganini without it are two very differ- had, indeed, previously seen some speci sent half a dollar to the widow of the defunct, out persons." I knew perfectly what he mens of those travelling go-carts conmeant, and said, " The Lord Lieutenant is a nobleman of exalted rank and character, ed. Lord Nelson once suggested to Ferdi. liberal in the extreme, but he is not Crusus; nand IV., of Naples, to try and check the nor do I think you could with any consisten- gious of Down East; but of the regular, daily increase of assassination, by a few sale cy receive such an honor as dining at his ta- scientific, it gerant Yankee trader, re- He pays for them always in advance. in a great hurry towards shore, and utary executions. "No, no," replied old blo, and afterwards send in a bill for play-Nasone, who was far from being as great ing two or three tunes in the evening." He was the first to meet our astonished and ent in the shape of a ring, or a snuff box, or and was, together with the horses, a settlement ?" He seemed tickled with this your genuine Yankees to sell every thing proper channel, that the violin and the gran who doubt even the validity of this exmaestro would both be in attendance. He ception. Our pedler gentleman had cont rouge et noir. He screwed you down in went in his very choicest mood, made him- tracted to sell his coach at Pittsburgh for a bargain as tightly as if you were compressed self extremely agreeable, played away, unthree hundred dollars, after the terminasolicited, throughout the evening, to the deality, and sometimes did a generous action, light of the whole party; and on the follow-In this he bore some resemblance to the ing morning, a gold snuff-box was duly celebrated John Elwes, of miserly notoriety. presented to him, with a few complimentary words engraved on the lid.

the effect that although he had not contem plated including Ireland in his tour, yet he had been so impressed with the urbanity of peeting the house to be quite full every the Dublin public, and had moreover conceived such a personal esteem for my individual character, that he might be induced step he marched to his locomotive shop, to after his plans, at some inconvenience, and reappeared with a tin box about four provided always I could make him a more teen inches square and as many deep, enticing proposal than the former one. I which he placed on the bar counter; the the right places." What we can get for was here completely puzzled, as on that 'oc- lady all the while protesting that she nothing we are inclined to think much less casion I gave him a clear two thirds of each of than that which we must purchase. The receipt, with a bonus of £25 per night in adman who pays is the real enthusiast; he dition, for two useless conditators. I replied, omes with a pre-determination to be amus- that having duly deliberated on his suggestion, and considering the terms of our last Connecticut philosopher, who seemed by walking into my room, and with many the new one in a more alluring shape, ex- lutely inaccessible to the gusts and blasts eccellences" and gerticulations of respect, cept by offering him the entire produce of of petty emotions, proceeded to unpack sking me to give him an order. I said, the engagement. After I had despatched his box and spread its contents in orderly Why do you come to me? Apply to your my letter, I repented bitterly, and was terri- array over the counter. We there say "O, yes, fied lest be should think me serious, and hold an illustration of the maxim that "fact out I don't like to ask him." "Why not?" me to the bargain; but he deigned no anis stranger than fiction." "If we were Because he'll stop the amount out of my swer, and this time I escaped for the fright I in the habit of betting." we would wager rages!" My heart relented; I gave him had given myself. When in London, I calbe order, and paid Paganini the dividend. led to see him, and met with a cordial re- any reasonable sum that no mortal man, I told him what it was, thinking, as a matter ception; but he soon alluded to the late cor. seeing that innumerable variety of articourse, he would return it. He seemed respondence, and half seriously said, "That cles, would believe that they all came neertain for a moment, paused, emiled sar- was a curious letter you wrote to me, and out of the tin box, or could all be reonically, looked at the three and sixpence, the joke with which you concluded it by no placed in it. But so it was. There and, with a spasmodic twitch, deposited it in means a good one." "Oh," said I laughing, were little cells for thimbles, pins, bodand, with a spasmodic twitch, deposited it in means a good one was Voltaire says, "no man is a hero to his valet taken me at my word." He then laughed e chambre," meaning thereby, as I sup- too, and we parted excellent friends. I pose, that being behind the scenes of every- never saw him again. He returned to the variety of et ceteras, which have passed ay life, he finds out that Marshal Saxe, or Continent, and died, having purchased the from our recollection. That Connectirederick the Great, is as subject to the title of baron, with a patent of nobility, from out gentleman must have had a great mmon infirmities of our nature, as John some foreign potentate, which, with his ac- memory. He knew the place for every-Nokes or Peter Styles. Whether Paganini's cumulated carnings, somewhat dilapidated thing, and when he got hold of an item quire of the body looked on his master as a by gambling, he bequeathed to his only son. to repack it, it went by instinct to its apto in the vulgar acceptance of the word. Paganini was the founder of his school, and propriate receptacle: and when they cannot say, but in spite of his stinginess, the original inventor of those extraordinary were all repacked, and one could no which he writhed under, he regarded him tours de force with which all his successors longer doubt the capability of the box, > INTERESTING DISCOVERIES.—We see it To resume our narrative. The glitdescribed by the historians and geographers still the Latin inscriptions designating the bids us to ' covet any thing that is our is said that in the course of his explorations strong as she felt herself to be before his soldiers cleared away many edifices or being tempted, soon evinced her legit immense circus; a fine temple of Esculapi- mate descent from mother Eve; and us, with an avenue of small chapels dedica- hostess though she was, she found that ted to other gods; a christian basilick, with she had "counted without her host." a magnificent mosaic pavement; an immense column, upon the base of which there is an mind," and she was among the busiest dress to the troops. He had found six tri- In a word, she fell before the combined umphal arches, and, besides, a theatre, where- charms of a regular assortment of Yanin he lighted up the strong-box filled with kee notions. Roman coins. He has brought to Paris a rich port-fulio of historical inscriptions, plans, A French traveller, Mr. Cyprian Duperron, and oft exclaimed from the bottom of his now exploring Egypt, has collected for the heart-Ethnographical Museum of Paris many curious inscriptions from the walls of the great temple of Phyla. - Phil. N. American. ON LIFE AND HEALTH COMBINED derful, and the most heart-rending tones inist, to gratity his domestic circle. The ington to an extent commensurate with the increased necessities of the legislative de quarto dictionary in two rolumes. partment of government. It is understood that no plan as yet has been adopted for erudite, the recondite, the venerable. taken at Lowen sares than by any other Com- was well attended, and on which occasion be fined con-si-de-ra-tio-n. He was alive to the be contracted for upon a scale and in a style Noah, at a shanty in the woods of the greatly to be desired that they should be But, as we perceive that we are spinhe had received enormous terms, such as made the occasion of a systematic encourning a long yers, we conclude by ingreatly to be desired as made the occasion of a systematic encourning a long yers, we conclude by informing our readers that it is fact and regal purse; but I undertook to manage the ders to be prepared for the assemblages of not "fiction," that the proprietor of the All heads of families should consider the limnrance. All men living

one salaries should in this way provide for the
charitable to suppose he was entitled to it
one salaries should in this way provide for the
charitable to suppose he was entitled to it
one salaries should in this way provide for the
charitable to suppose he was entitled to it
one salaries should in this way provide for the
charitable to suppose he was entitled to it
one salaries should in this way provide for the
charitable to suppose he was entitled to it
one salaries should in this way provide for the
charitable to suppose he was entitled to it
one salaries should in this way provide for the
charitable to suppose he was entitled to it
one salaries should in this way provide for the
charitable to suppose he was entitled to it
one salaries should in this way provide for the
charitable to suppose he was entitled to it
one salaries should in this way provide for the
charitable to suppose he was entitled to it
one salaries should in this way provide for the
charitable to suppose he was entitled to it
one salaries should in this way provide for the
charitable to suppose he was entitled to it
one salaries should in this way provide for the
charitable to suppose he was entitled to it
one salaries should in this way provide for the
charitable to suppose he was entitled to it
one salaries should in this way provide for the
charitable to suppose he was entitled to it
one salaries should in this way provide for the
charitable to suppose he was entitled to it
one salaries should in this way provide for the
charitable to suppose he was entitled to it
one salaries should in this way provide for the
charitable to suppose he was entitled to it
one salaries should in this way provide for the
charitable to suppose he was entitled to it
one salaries should in this way provide for the
charitable to suppose he was entitled to it
one salaries should in this way provide for the
charitable to suppose he was entitled to it
one salaries should in this way provide for taining combs, cigars, whips, mouse traps, &c., which perambulate the recently from the land of blue laws, this was staggered, and asked, "What do you admitting eyes. The vehicle itself might I said, "Don't you think a pres- pass for quite a respectable stage-coach something of that sort, with a short inscrip- article of traffic. It is a principle with all kinds, the most poorly remunerated; suggestion, and closed with it at once. I with the single exception of soul and despatched the intelligence through the body; and there are not wanting those tion of his adventure. His horses he had sold at great profits, to be delivered also when he had completed his voyage. We were sitting in a small tavern when A year or two after this, when Paganini our hero made his appearance, and asked was again in England, I thought another en- the landlady if she wished to buy any gagement might be productive, as his extra- knick-knacks; to which question he rerdinary attraction appeared still to incresse. coived an immediate and decided-so. An ordinary man would have been dis comfitted by such a reception, but it fell hale the grateful odors that rise from its on the Yankee as ineffectually

" As lightning on an iceberg, when

On the impassive see the lightnings play." With perfect coolness and a deliberate wanted none of his kick-shaws. Without noticing in the slightest degree these vehement exclamations, our compact, I saw no possible means of placing mentally to reside at an elevation abso threads, laces, bobbins, and an endless

"That one small head could carry all he stated that a Mr. Carbuccia, who holds a tering articles were all arrayed on the military post in Algeria, has recently, in a counter of the bar. The females of the household were speedily congregated, of Rome, discovered a great number of the and, charitable as we constitutionally nilitary mile stones, which seem to be in a are, we must admit that they violated emarkable state of preservation, bearing that portion of the decalogue which formillia of distance between the stations. It neighbor's." The landlady herself

" A change came o'er her economi imperial order of the day, and a sort of ad- in negotiating the terms of a bargain

To cap the climax, a staid old bach elevations of the monoments, and so forth, clor, who esteemed himself vanity proof,

"Vain pomp and glory of this world, I hate ye," melted away before the meridian sun of PROPOSED ENLARGEMENT AND DECO. temptation. He purchased a cassimere RATION OF THE CAPITOL AT WASHING. vest of fine quality-for the tin box conron.-At the recent annual meeting of the tained but a small part of the stock in strange physiognomy of this uncouth and twenty-five dollars personnum for insurance on his life. On the Maind plan it will secure him policy of one thousand dollars. Not that, as in times of clock plan the same twenty-five dollars will secure him a policy of one thousand and five hunged instrument. On the contrary, the brings the most powerful, the most wong wish to get an evening from the great violations and and five hunged instrument. Since the strange of thirty-two dellars are the strange of his uncouth and him many compliments. Lord Anglesca uncarring in many compliments. Lord Anglesca the many compliments. Lord Anglesca the five dollars are the strange of his uncouth and him many compliments. Lord Anglesca the many compliments. Lord Anglesca the first the course in trade, and the coach itself was a countries to complete the first that time residing in perfect privacy policy of one thousand dollars. The first the first the first the first to lover of Art. Union, Mr. Cozzens, the trade, and the coach itself was a countries to complete the first that time residing in perfect privacy policy of one thousand dollars. The first t determined to calarge the Capitol at Wash-place, that we there first saw Webster's

What a queer event, to encounter the

they have upon public approval, how the Yankee Blade. merest mistake of a pen may lose them hosts of subscribers; he is fully aware that brain work is, and ever has been, of and that editorial labor, no matter how much it may build up private interests, is always undervalued by its greatest debtors He is a missionary in the good cause. He reasons with his neighbors often and at length on the manifold adand interests himself, sometimes to the neglect of his own business in the col-watch him while reading one of his favorites, his "darlings," as he fondly calls them—the Plaindealer, for example. He first unfolds it with great care, places it upon the stove, and bends over to innewly-printed surface. He watches the the diurnal motion upon its axis which is drying process with almost a school-boy's imputed to it, and which explains the Fairweather Island, situated midway beimpatience, and, when all is ready, seats phenomena of day and night, &c., the tween the harbors of Black Rock and himself snugly in a capacious rocking plane in which the pendulum vibrates Bridgeport (Conn). The Island conchair, poises his beels upon the tableedge, and abandons himself to its pages. will not be affected by this diurnal mo-If the leader specially harmonizes with his own views, he signifies his approval his own views, he signifies his approval by frequent and noisy slappings of the which the pendulum is suspended will left leg, and when his eye rests upon continually change its position in virtue some particularly ingenious point, he eans back, and, with a glance at the ceiling, fixes its import lofever in his Since then the table thus revolves, and memory. He carefully treasures up important news items, and keeps a huge not revolve, the consequence is, that a man, and seems to make up in tact what folio in which he pastes all sorts of marine statistics, for he is a heavy shipowner, and has been calculating a table of risks for the last twenty years. He notes well the various fluctuations in stocks and markets, and his ample forrine statistics, for he is a heavy shipstocks and markets, and his ample forhe has made of his knowledge in that detune bears witness to the good use that partment. In short, nothing escapes his corner; he has a hearty laugh for the centre of the table, and the two lines of whom know of these facts, they have unny stories; he charges his mind with the raciest jokes, to be used in next day's conversation; and we have heard him other of 15 degrees, being the 24th part declare that a well-written advertisement of the circumference. pleased him more than any thing else in the world. He is a stay-at-home uni- to the crowds which daily flock to the We also understand that Capt. Moore versal traveller; he can give you all the Pantheon to witness this remarkable excharacteristics of Kamtschatka scenery periment. The practised eye of a corand climate; and narrates with ease the rect observer, especially if aided by a brought up a family of five children, discovery and uses of the South African proper optical instrument, may actually upon a salary of three hundred dollars a vec tree." He is familiar with every see the motion which the table has in cow tree." He is familiar with every see the motion which the table has in wheel controversy." in religious, commercial, or political sta. the same point of the circumference of We have already alluded to the appretistics; and as for United States history, the table after two successive ribrations. hensions expressed by one or two memhe can treat you to a complete abstract, Thus is rendered visible the motion bers of Parliament, lest an attempted down to the receipt of the last paper, earth. ance in the Plaindealer.

upon the " years that are fled," he finds it .- London Times. little that can cause regret here, or mar his prospects for happiness in eternity.-Cleaveland (Ohio) Plaindealer.

When one says to the other-

"Be jabers, and lets fire a salute." 'ud make the divil's own noise."

" Tut, man," replied the first, " we'll stop that," of the gun me darlint, and we'll have a already been taught in the school of rer- the blush."

and held the bag as directed, while the Friends, hearing a man abusing, in terms "The common law of Arkausas." Rathother touched off the cannon. The offi- unfit for ears polite, a particularly bad er pointed.

We have a friend who is a most nota- board, where they found one of the Irish- " Friend, I'm under obligations to thee. ble specimen of this class. He is a reg- men, and everything in a great state of What thou hast done I would have done, ular virtuoso in "perishable literature." bewilderment. He was asked what had but my religious feelings restrain me. He takes ten or twelve journals from dif- become of his comrade. "Sure," said Do not let my conscience, however, ferent parts of the country, and would he, "Pathrick was holdin' a bag over over-rule thee. Give thy indignation rather be depriced of his dinner-epi- the mouth of the cannon, to stop the wings, and suffer not the prejudices of cure though he is - than forego the noise, while I touched it off, and the last others to paralyze the foregue of long pleasure of their perusal from day to day, I see'd of him or the bag they were goin' suffering Yes, verily." - Carpet Bag. He well knows the precarious hold that that's the last account I can give ye."-

The Rotation of the Earth Rendered

the Pantheon a fine wire is attached, public, or in any way remembered or from which a sphere of metal, four or celebrated as a public benefactor; which rantages of a well-regulated newspaper, five inches in diameter, is suspended so the writer attributed to her being an as to hang near the floor of the building. American, asserting-" had she beetr This apparatus is put in vibration after English, all Europe would have fund lection and forwarding of subscriptions. the manner of a pendulum. Under and with her achievements, and our public It always affords us great pleasure to concentrical with it is placed a circular papers been filled with her praises." table, some 20 feet in diameter, the circumference of which is divided into de- enquiries respecting this lady, and withnumbered. Now, it can be shown by son who is intimately acquainted with the most elementary principles of me- her, and her worthy family. chanics that, supposing the earth to have of the diurnal motion, so as to make a it is said she can distinguish the shricks complete revolution round its centre, of the drowning mariner, and direct her form a system of lines radiating from the and most respectable acquaintance, many formed after the interval of one hour would always form an angle with each public before. The late lamented Major with mingle reverence and terror. "A strange person, your master," observed I. strange person, your master, observed I. did in regard to Goldsmith's school nass light," and the merits of the "paddles light," and t rather the point attached to the bottom You cannot catch him off his guard, of the ball, does not return precisely to A Panic in Relation to the Great Fair.

> condensed in one of his newspapers.
>
> To conclude, he is happy in all his in the same time round the same axis.
>
> "So far is the feeling respected, which domestic relations -- is a beloved husband and father, and the whole neighborhood above the centre of the table. The repose with perfect confidence on his plane in which the pendulum vibrates that in addition to the Duke's 20,000 opinion. He is their Nestor, and his does not, however, partake of this mohearthstone is well worn with the feet of tion, and consequently has the appears another 'letter' or two of the Alphabet old and young. He is now in the de- ance of revolving once in 24 hours over upon the police force, the authorities cline of life, yet he finds the path easy the table, while, in reality, it is the table have licensed permanent fairs' in various and pleasant, and, when he looks back which revolves once in 24 hours under suburbs of the town, in order to with-> this change is to be, we dare not even conjecture, but we see in the heavens Battersea field; another on Kensington An Inish Sature.-Two Irishmen themselves some traces of destructive Common; and at Bayswan, and many were left in charge of a ship, while its elements, and some indication of their more in open spaces equally proximate officers went ashore, and strictly en- power. The fragments of broken plan- to the busy parts of the townjoined not to make or permit any noise ets, the descent of meteoric stones upon on board; but a jug of "ould Irish" our globe-the wheeling comets weldone of them had, and the opportunity ing their loose materials at the solar furfor a "bit of a spree," was too great a nace—the volcanie eruptions in our own usual arrangements of an English fair; temptation for them to resist. They in- satellite-the appearance of new stars, and it is understood that these booths, dulged freely, and, as many of our public men have been known to, soon drank foreshadows of the impending convulforeshadows of the impending convulforeshadows of the impending convulthemselves into a very patriotic spirit. sion to which the system of the world is the whote of the season! 'The "allotdoomed. Thus placed on a planet which ments" to applicants for ground whereis to be burnt up, and under beavons on to erect booths, are already made or "Agreed," says the other, "but that which are to pass away-thus treading, being made, and in another day or two as it were, on the cemeteries and dwell- the work of construction will begin and ing upon the mausoleums of former be completed, with a promotitude that worlds-let us learn the lesson of hu- will put even Fox & Henderson (the "Just you hould a bag over the mouth miliation and wisdom, if we have not contractors for the Crystal Palace) to Another Grace Darling. There has recently been a communic cation in a New York paper, "The Sunday Messenger," respecting a lady whom they denominate a second Grace The experiment now being exhibited Darling, a young, intelligenr and interin Paris, by which the diurnal rotation esting woman, within sixty miles of New of the earth is rendered palpable to the York, who has, with the assistance of senses, is certainly one of the most re- an aged and infirm father, saved twentymarkable of the modern verifications of one lives within the last fifteen years; theory. At the centre of the dome of and yet has never been known to the

We have been at some pains to make

Kite Moore is the daughter of Capt, Moore, who keeps the Light House on will not be affected by this diurnal mo- tains five acres of land, and is about half direction during twenty-four hours. In it is known, have occurred to vessels driven round Montank Point in a storm, and sometimes in the Sound homeward trim a boat and manage it as well as any site lacks in strength, and never refuses a pencil, and that paper were spread in her manners, and that slthough she pencil during twenty-four hours would places in that vicinity, and has a larger never come to the knowledge of the Noah, who was remarkable for collecting the most interesting facts, by some Now, this is rendered actually visible means became acquainted with them, from the days of Americus Vespucius which the table has in common with the revolutionary movement should be made in London during the progress of the You must be careful how you venture It is true that, correctly speaking, the Great Fair. It is said that the governon borrowed jokes in his presence- as table does not turn round by its centre, ment has informed itself conclusively he may quietly put you to the blush by but turns round the axis of the earth, that an extensive organization was going mentioning the date of their first appear. nevertheless, the effect of the motion on in London, among the most recently relatively to the pendulum suspended imported and less reputable of the Cons-He reads books, of course, but they over the centre of the table is precisely timental immirrants, having for its objects are few in number; he knows that in the same as it would be if the table interference with the peace of some of many of them the ideas are sparse, and moved once in 24 hours round its own the European countries, and if possible, the words innumerable-an ounce of centre, for although the table is turned an active interference in the domestic butter on an acre of bread-and he pre. in common with the surface of the earth policy and government of Great Britain. fers to find the substance of the thing round the earth's axis, the point of sus- A London correspondent of the N. Y.

> poof and ignorant and the rich imbecile. draw a large body of the populace from The Doom or our World - What the more crowded districts and the more tion itself. One of these is to be in

" In each of these localities, a certain space will be surrendered to booths

Pat acquiesced in the arrangement, DT A member of the Society of the following inscription upon them: